

STRATEGIC ALLIANCE AGREEMENT

This strategic alliance agreement is entered into as of January 23, 2015 by and between North Carolina Project Management Institute (NCPMI) with a principal location in Raleigh, NC and North Carolina Project Leaders Toastmaster Club (NCPL) with a principal location in Durham, NC.

North Carolina Project Management Institute (NCPMI) offers a variety of forums to network with practitioners, academicians, executives, and their colleagues in the ethical practice of Project Management.

North Carolina Project Leaders Toastmasters Club (NCPL) provides a structured, friendly, empowering and supportive learning environment to improve the speaking, listening and leadership skills of Project Managers and individuals interested in Project Management.

These services do not compete with one another; they serve different functions. Project managers require communication and leadership expertise which makes this alliance an excellent match.

Mutual Promotion

Each party will provide the following.

1. Each party will support each other to produce competent leaders and communicators.
2. Each party will support each other in its goal to provide PDUs for PMPs.
3. NCPL will abide by the rules and guidelines outlined by PMI and is responsible for maintaining its records for PMI auditing.
4. Each party will provide a link on its website home page to promote each other and allow potential members to connect.
5. NCPL members will promote NCPMI and support the organization by participating in speaking and networking activities.
